2013 witnessed significant events in the socio-economic and political arena with an underlying current for change. India's GDP grew by 4.4% in the first quarter of 2013-14, the slowest in 4 years because of high interest rates and weak demand situation. The emergence of a new political party at the centre began to be viewed as the beginning of a new era in the history of Indian politics.

The pre-election year saw landmark bills being passed and new laws being created with an aim to provide safety, security, good governance and growth. The much awaited Lokpal Bill was passed in December, which will go a long way in fighting corruption in public offices and ensuring accountability on the part of public officials, including the Prime Minister. The Food Security Bill aiming at providing food security to 70% of India's population was passed in September. The Companies Bill, 2013 was passed in August, replacing the Companies Act, 1956 with a special clause on CSR. The Land Acquisition, Rehabilitation and Resettlement Act, 2013 was also passed, which aimed at stricter norms and increasing landowners' compensation significantly. More stringent anti-rape laws were passed to protect women.

With an array of initiatives, the Western Region had a very eventful year. It witnessed several new beginnings. It started a monthly newsletter to enhance member interaction and engagement. CII CEO Connect was launched during the year. The initiative aims to bridge the gap between the academia and the industry. The most recent was Indian Women Network (IWN), which was launched in March with a mission to train and mentor women to empower them.

We continued to engage constructively with the Government. In doing so, we organised member interactions with Chief Ministers, Members of Parliament, Chief Secretaries, Principal Secretaries and other officials from the Government across the states. Our dialogue with the Government encompassed critical topics like GST, FDI, industrial and sectoral policies, skill development and attracting investments into States. We founded 'Panaji-First', a non-profit trust for city development in the state of Goa.

In addition to interactions, we also partnered with several state governments for key events. We did three events with the Government of Gujarat - National Summit on Inclusive Urban Development 2013, National Education Summit and Garvi Gurjari National Craft Fair & Summit 2014. We partnered with the Madhya Pradesh State Government for Warehousing & Logistics Summit and 6th MP EXPORTECH - INDORE FOOD EXPO 2014.

The Sustainability agenda continued to remain at the heart of all our initiatives. 'Water conservation' dominated our sustainability initiatives this year. CII kick-started 'Project Tushar' with an aim to support the drought-hit areas in the Marathwada region of Maharashtra. Villages near Aurangabad were lent necessary support to achieve self sufficiency in their water requirements. Other events that were organised around this concept were the Water Conclave in Mumbai and Water Seminar & Gujarat Water Summit and Expo in Ahmedabad. Besides CII - IGBC 2nd Conference on 'Sustainable Development for a Green Goa' and the conference 'Responsible Growth: A Business Imperative' were organized in Goa and Mumbai, respectively.

Agriculture remained on our radar of priority sectors. CII was the strategic partner for the national agriculture fair-cum-exhibition 'Krishi Vasant', jointly organized by the Government of India and the Government of Maharashtra in Nagpur in February 2014. Aptly dubbed as the 'Mahakumbh' of agriculture, the mega event received more than 7 lakh farmer visitors from all over India. Gujarat hosted the 'Global Agriculture Summit 2013' at Gandhinagar. The summit saw the participation of 11 countries and reached around 7,000 farmers from 23 states in India.

Our Centres of Excellence (COE) have been going strong. We have four COE in the region, of which three are in Gujarat - Gujarat Knowledge Application & Facilitation Centre (GKAFC), Centre of Excellence in Nanotechnology and Intellectual Property Facilitation Centre. The GKAFC was inaugurated during the year.

CII's Chhindwara Skill Centre is a novel CII-industry partnership that aims at creating a pool of trained workmen for the Indian industry by providing them vocational and soft skills training. Started in the year 2008, the initiative is currently associated with 8 companies and offers nine courses. The Centre is soon expected to launch courses in honing culinary skills in partnership with Taj Hotels Ltd. In 2013, the Centre successfully trained 400 students, including 145 SC & ST candidates.

Furthering its agenda of Skill Development, CII Western Region organized 'National Conference on Skill Development' in Gandhinagar in Gujarat. This conference was inaugurated by the Chief Minister of the state and it witnessed huge attendance from across 500 districts. A delegation from Madhya Pradesh was taken for 'World Skills Competition' to Leipzig in Germany. The year saw the release of 'Goa NSDC Skill Gap Assessment Study' at an interaction on Skills Development organized by CII in Goa.

The emphasis on Affirmative Action and the CSR agenda continued during the year. Under this initiative, more than 21,000 SC/ST candidates were provided vocational and soft skills training. Over 25,000 SC/ST candidates were placed with members companies. CII launched a portal - www.ciispecialabilityjobs.in for providing jobs to the differently-abled in Mumbai. Besides it organized a job fair for disabled people in Pune and signed a MOU with the Government of Gujarat for supporting Finishing Schools (Employability Skills Programme).

An impressive spread of initiatives was undertaken by the seven chapters of Yi based in Ahmedabad, Bhopal, Goa, Indore, Mumbai, Pune and Vadodara. Yi Western Region Summit, which was organized in Vadodara, was the biggest event under Yi. The Summit aimed at fostering the entrepreneurial spirit among young entrepreneurs, professionals, academicians and students.

The International Desk remained highly active during the year. The first ever international mission of CEOs delegation was taken to Myanmar and Thailand. Another highlight of the year was an international MOU was signed for the first time in the region with Flanders Chamber of Commerce and Industry (VOKA) and East Flanders Region of Belgium. The desk facilitated 48 interactions involving 26 countries during the year.

The ensuing pages will take you through a mesmerizing journey highlighting the key and strategic initiatives that we have undertaken in the Region. These include Summits/Conferences/ Trade Fairs and Exhibitions. We are glad to announce that CII Western Region would soon be moving to more spacious premises in the same building.

I would like to thank the wonderful team that I got to work with - the regional council, state & zonal councils, sub-committee chairs, event chairmen, Yi office bearers, Past Presidents & Past Chairs. I am also very thankful for the guidance and support lent by the President, President Designate, Vice President and Director General for making this journey smooth and memorable. I thank my running mate Chetan for being a true partner.

Lastly, I express my sincere thanks to the CII Secretariat, whose untiring efforts ensured that all our thoughts culminated into action and we had an eventful year.

Reviving Economic Growth & Development:

“Leveraging Human Capital”

1 October 2013, Mumbai

‘Out of around 4 lakh engineering students passing out every year only about 20 p.c. are employable. Developing skills is as important as training. A larger effort is needed to create a skilled workforce with employment potential’

- Dr M M Pallam Raju, Minister of HRD, Government of India

The Summit, an exclusive event for CXOs was inaugurated by Dr M M Pallam Raju, Hon'ble Union Minister of HRD. Ms Chanda Kochhar, Managing Director and CEO of ICICI Bank Ltd. delivered the Keynote Address and emphasized on the key challenges:

- Creating around 10-12 million jobs annually for incremental workforce
- Embracing technology and automation, which creates fewer jobs
- Focusing on employability of workforce
- Harnessing demographic dividend so as to avoid getting caught in the 'middle income trap'
- Remaining cost competitive in the global economy, amidst rising labour costs.

Mr Shekhar Gupta, Editor-in-Chief of the Indian Express highlighted social pressure on education that has created 'distorted skill sets' in the Indian workforce.

More than 300 Chief Executives, Business Heads and HR Heads from key sectors attended the event.

Launch of India@75 : Call to Action

14 November 2013, Mumbai

Captains of India Inc. and eminent personalities from across professions took a pledge to start a movement - "Count me in. Together we shall do it" - at the Launch of India@75 : Call to Action in Mumbai.

India@75 Initiative is inspired by Late Prof. C K Prahalad's vision regarding a holistic three-dimensional development of India so as to be able acquire enough strength, technological vitality and moral leadership by the end of 75 years of Independence.

India@75 mission launched in Mumbai

SARAL TIMES TEAM
saratimes.com

Mumbai: India@75 Call to Action, a first-of-its-kind initiative, that aims at an inclusive, sustainable and developed India by 2022, when the country completes 75 years of Independence, was formally launched in Mumbai on Thursday.

"It is going to be a people's movement and will seek the participation of all."

Powered and presented by the Confederation of Indian Industry (CII), the India@75 Foundation has studied a detailed blueprint and a road map about how it wants the nation to be in 2022.

Incidentally, the launch coincided with Children's Day, the 10th anniversary of Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru, the first Prime Minister of India.

Empower Industries Adil Gohil, the Chairman of Gujarat Group, who is Chairman of India@75 Foundation, set the message as he shared the vision and the key pillars.

"It is a people's movement. It is for the people and for the people. The movement gained momentum thanks to the support of distinguished individuals from various walks of life. Let us join the movement and achieve an inclusive, sustainable and developed India by 2022, when we mark 75 years of Independence," Gohil added.

Prime Minister Narendra Modi, who was the source of the inspiring vision of the "China Dream" of the Communist Party of China, the Chairman of the National Development and Reform Commission, and the former Prime Minister of India, set the message as he shared the vision and the key pillars.

"The mission and the importance of the movement is the 100 Year CE (Centennial) of India's Independence, that is, to build a better and developed India by 2022. It is about economic, technological, vitality and moral leadership by 2022," Gohil added.

CII President S. Datta also said that the movement's aim is for a better and developed India.

"It is part of the nation building process," he said.

At the event, the India@75 movement was brought alive by an India@75 anthem penned by renowned writer, poet and lyricist Javed Akhtar, set to music by Lalit Prasad and sung by Sush Rattan and Alka Yagnik.

Those present included Governor Prakash, with him CII President, Sush Rattan, Group's Managing Director Adil Gohil, Tata Group Chairman, Cyrus Mistry, India Group Chairman, Ramesh Bajaj, Planning Commission member Arun Jaitley, former Director General of the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research, Dr. Manoj Kumar, and CII Director General, Chandragiri Ramkrishna.

THE MISSION BINDS ALL INDIANS

The thought that any Indian can step up and volunteer, individually or collectively, is a simple but powerful one. The India@75 initiative is so much about the spirit of community and commitment, as it is about the value of the contribution made - a wonderful way to bind the nation's citizens through a common cause.

- Cyrus Mistry, Chairman, Tata Group

THE PLEDGE INDIA@75

"I pledge my support to the India@75 movement. I will make my best effort to help empower the people of India to be educated, skilled, progressive, safe and healthier by the year 2022. I join hands with over a billion Indians to say 'Count me in. Together we shall do it!'"
